

We are going to the library

The library has lots of books, tidy
on shelves.

I can look at the ones for my age
and take one.

The books are there to be touched and looked at.

People talk quietly there, because others are reading.

I can speak quietly or go closer to say something.

Talking quietly helps other people concentrate.

I can sit and read at a table or on a cushion.

I can choose how long I read for.
If I get tired, I can change books.

To take a book home, we take it to the desk with our card.

I can hand the book to the person
there.

The book goes back to the library
on the date they tell us.

We are going to the library

Social story made with inklui.com

Pictograms: Sergio Palao. Source: ARASAAC (arasaac.org). Licence: CC BY-NC-SA. Owner: Government of Aragon.

Based on Carol Gray's Social Stories.