

A new school year is starting

When the summer ends, a new school year starts.

Before it starts, I can look at photos of the school.

Then I already know some things
on the first day.

Usually, in the new school year I have a different teacher.

I can tell my teacher my name
and what helps me.

My teacher wants to get to know
me.

Sometimes my class is in a different classroom.

I can visit the classroom with an adult.

Knowing the place helps me feel calm.

Some classmates stay in my class,
and some change.

I can say hello to the people I already know.

Little by little, I can get to know
new people too.

The first few days are different.

I can look at my timetable to know what comes next.

Day by day, the new school year
becomes familiar.
