

We are going to the cinema

We are going to the cinema to watch a film.

I can look at the poster to see which one we will watch.

The ticket says what time it starts.

We go into the screen and find our seats.

I can sit in the seat that is on the ticket.

Before it starts, the lights go down.

The room goes dark and the sound is loud.

I can bring my ear defenders or cover my ears for a moment.

The sound is from the film;
nothing else is happening.

If I need to leave, I can tell the person with me.

I can go out into the corridor for a while and come back.

I can leave and come back; the film carries on.

When the film ends, the lights
come on.

I can talk about the part I liked best.

We leave calmly, without rushing.

We are going to the cinema
