

I am going to a birthday party

I have been invited to a birthday party.

I can ask where it is and how long it lasts.

Knowing when it ends helps me.

Birthday parties often have music,
games and lots of people.

If I need a rest, I can go somewhere quieter with an adult.

Resting for a while is OK.

There are games at the party.

I can choose what to play, or watch for a while.

Watching is a way of joining in too.

When the cake comes out, people

I can sing, clap or just watch.

All three are OK.

When the party ends, I go home.
I can say goodbye and thank you.
I went to a birthday party.
