

I am starting a new club

I am starting a new club one day
a week.

I can look at the calendar to see which day it is on.

Seeing the day on the calendar helps me know when it is.

There is someone who runs the club and children I do not know.

I can say hello and tell them my name when I feel ready.

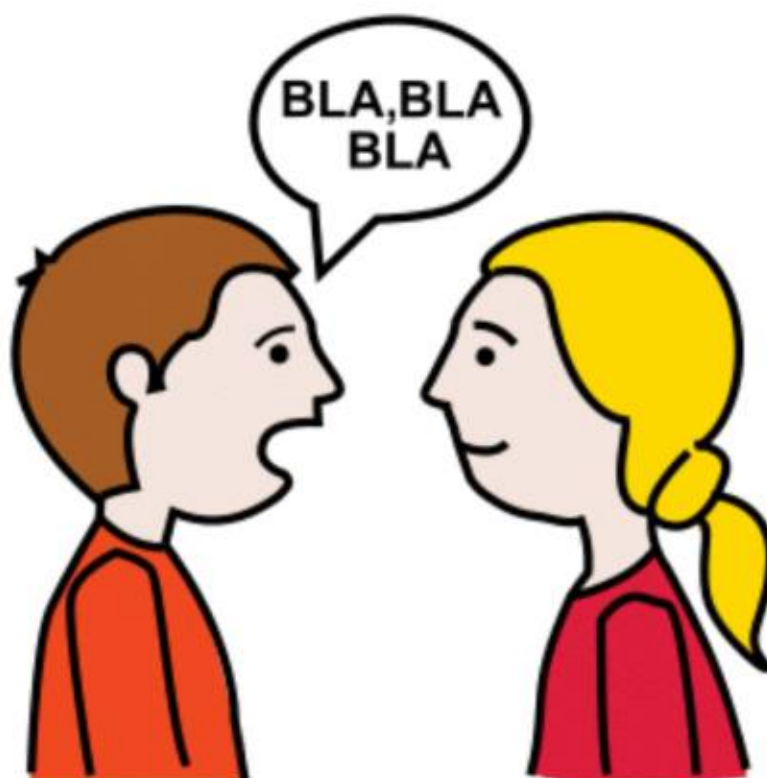

At the beginning, lots of people do not know each other.

Each day we do things in a similar order: arrive, get ready, do the activity and tidy up.

I can ask what comes next.

With that order, I know what is going to happen.

When I get home, we talk about how it went.

I can say what I liked and what I found hard.

Together we decide whether I carry on going.

I am starting a new club
