

Today there is a party at school

On some days there is a party at school, like at carnival.

I can ask what we are going to do that day.

That day, the timetable is different.

At carnival, lots of people wear costumes.

I can look at the person and listen to their voice.

A costume is just clothes. The person is the same.

I can choose whether to dress up or not.

I can try the costume on at home
a few days before.

If the clothes bother me, I can say so.

At parties there can be loud music
and lots of people.

I can put on my ear defenders or go somewhere quieter with an adult.

It is OK to take a rest during the party.

✓	LU	MA	MI	JU	VI	SA	DO

After the party, the everyday timetable comes back.

I can look at my timetable.

The next day, I know what comes next.

Today there is a party at school

Social story made with inklui.com

Pictograms: Sergio Palao. Source: ARASAAC
(arasaac.org). Licence: CC BY-NC-SA. Owner:
Government of Aragon.

Based on Carol Gray's Social Stories.