

A baby is coming to my family

There is going to be a baby in my family.

I can ask when the baby is coming.

I am going to have a brother or a sister.

Babies cry a lot.

If the crying bothers me, I can put on my ear defenders or go to another room.

Babies cry to show they need something. They are not crying because of me.

The baby needs lots of attention
from the adults.

I can ask for some time to do something together.

My family still loves me.

Sometimes I might feel jealous or angry.

I can say how I feel.

Feeling jealous is normal, and people can help me.

Little by little, the baby grows.

When the baby is older, I can show them things.

I am learning to be a big brother or sister.

A baby is coming to my family
