

Today there is a different teacher

Sometimes my teacher cannot come to school, and someone else teaches the class.

I can say hello to the new person.

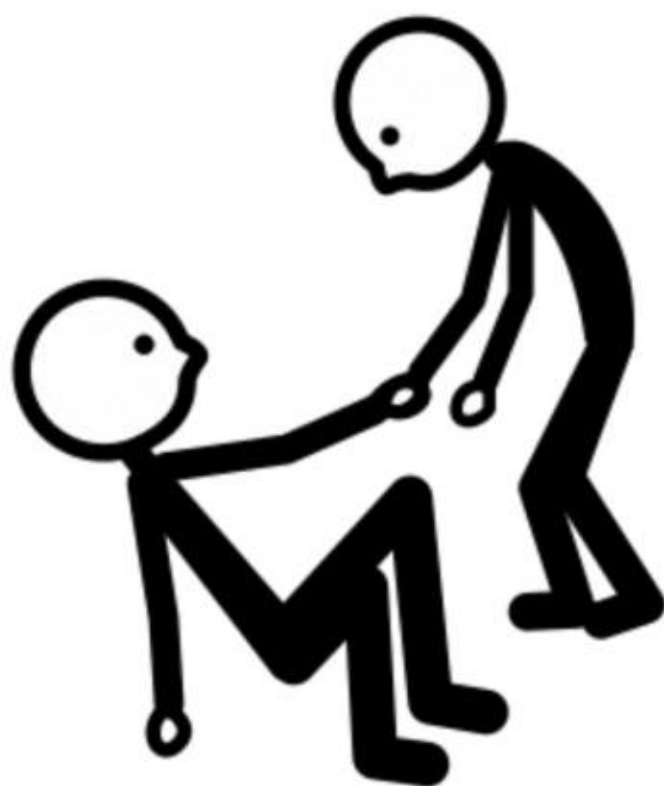

Usually, my teacher comes back after a few days.

The other teacher might do some things differently.

I can look at the class timetable.

Lots of things in the day stay the same.

The other teacher might not know what helps me.

I can show my card or ask another adult at school for help.

Then the teacher will know how to help me.

I might feel nervous with a different teacher.

I can breathe slowly.

Feeling nervous is normal, and it passes.

Today there is a different teacher
