

Today there is a fire drill

On some days we have a fire drill at school. It is a practice to learn how to leave the building.

I can listen to my teacher.

Practising helps us know what to do.

In the fire drill, a very loud alarm goes off.

I can cover my ears or put on my ear defenders.

The alarm rings for a while and then it stops.

The whole class goes out in a line.
I can walk with my class, without running.

My teacher comes with the class.

Outside, we wait in a place that is already marked.

I can stay with my class until the teacher says so.

Afterwards we go back to the classroom and the day carries on.
